D) To pursue joint publications in refereed national and international journals, periodicals, and magazines;

E) Interdisciplinary Centre for Food Security, BAU will act as a focal point and will represent BAU in this agreement.

II. Other Cooperation

Both parties agree in principle to pursue other cooperative initiatives. Examples of future collaborations may include articulation agreements, exchange of academic materials, faculty/fellow exchange, future co-sponsored conferences and symposiums, and joint research activities. Any future initiatives shall be set forth in a separate agreement and mutually consented in writing by both parties.

III. General Provisions

A) Compliance, Applicable Law, Licensure, Accreditation

Both AIBS and BAU shall be responsible for compliance with and implementation of applicable respective, national, state, regulatory and/or licensing agencies during the term of this agreement, which shall be governed by and construed in accordance with applicable laws and statutes of the respective regulatory agencies of AIBS and/or BAU, and shall be contingent upon AIBS and BAU securing and maintaining all necessary accreditation, approvals and/or clearances.

B) No Assignment

Neither party shall be permitted to assign or transfer any interest in this Agreement without the other party's prior written approval.

C) Term of Agreement

This MOU shall be for a period of four years commencing on 04.02.2015 and ending on 03.02.2019. Upon the expiration or termination of this MOU, both parties may consent to renew this MOU for an additional term as mutually agreed upon in writing and signed by both parties.

D) Independent Contractors

Both AIBS and BAU are independent contractors. It is not intended that an employer/employee, joint venture or partnership agreement be established hereby expressly or by implication between AIBS and BAU. Rather, in discharging all duties and obligations hereunder, BAU shall at all times be and remain in an independent contractor relationship with AIBS.

E) Termination

In the event that the either party may elect to terminate this agreement upon thirty (30) days written notice to the other party. Upon termination, any faculty or students or fellows involved in other cooperation activities as set forth in separate written agreement shall be permitted to complete those activities unless both parties mutually consent to terminating such agreements.

F) Nondiscrimination

Both AIBS and BAU subscribe to a policy of equal opportunity and do not discriminate on the basis of race, gender, age, marital status, ethnicity, religion, national origin, handicap, sexual orientation, or other protected classes.

G) Trademarks

The parties recognize and acknowledge that all rights and goodwill in their respective trademarks are the exclusive property of their separate organizations. AIBS may announce its affiliation with BAU with respect to this MOU in its catalog or other printed materials, and may publicize the cooperative initiatives as set forth in this MOU and separate written agreements between the parties in a manner deemed mutually acceptable to the parties. Except as set forth above, the parties agree not to use the other's name or other trademarks in advertising, marketing or other materials without the prior written permission of the other.

H) Financial Commitment

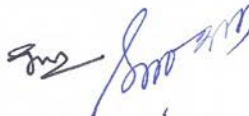

Nothing in this MOU shall be deemed a commitment of obligation of funds from either party.

I) Reporting

Both the parties shall be reportable to their own authorities regarding any activity conducted under this MOU on their own accord. For example, AIBS shall report to the Council of American Overseas Research Centers (CAORC).

J) Entire Agreement

This MOU sets forth the entire understanding between the parties and no amendments or modifications shall be made to this MOU, except in writing signed by both parties.
